

Federal Funding Cuts to Harvard Medical School Impact Scientific Research Across the United States

More than 350 federal grants and contracts at Harvard Medical School have been terminated by the government, representing approximately $230 million in funding each year.

These terminations jeopardize more than 230 outgoing HMS subawards to hospitals and academic research institutions in 23 states and in Washington, DC.