Do You Have a Smart Thermostat?

Yes, I Have One

No, I Don't

Many smart thermostats connect with programs that can help you save energy automatically when demand is high. They use small, temporary adjustments that keep your home comfortable.

Our program is called Energy Wise Rewards™, and we'd like to share some information about it. One quick answer will help us send you the most relevant details.

*Not all smart thermostats are eligible for the program, so be sure to confirm the model you choose is eligible for Energy Wise Rewards.

You must be an active residential Atlantic City Electric customer with a valid account number to participate. See program website for guidance on program-specific eligibility and participation requirements.
