WhoDrivesYou?

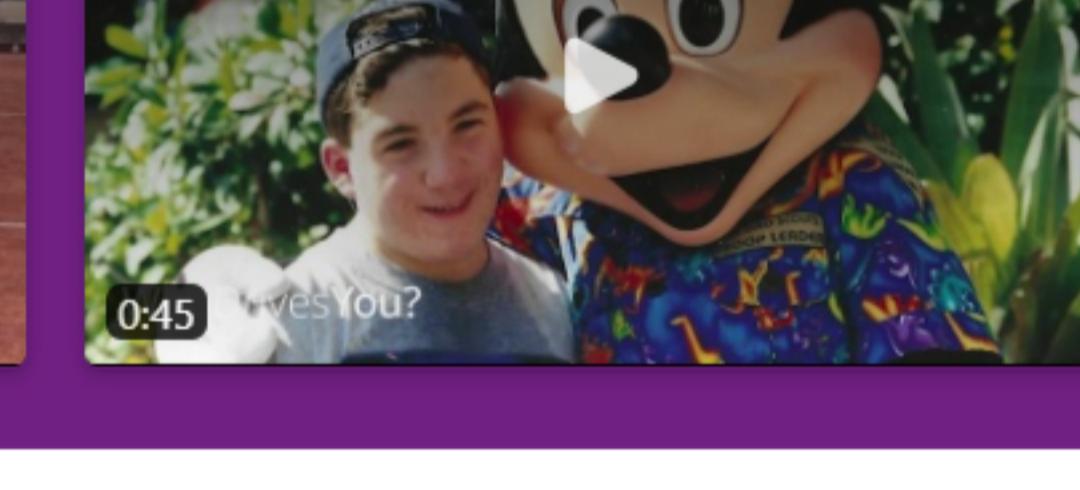

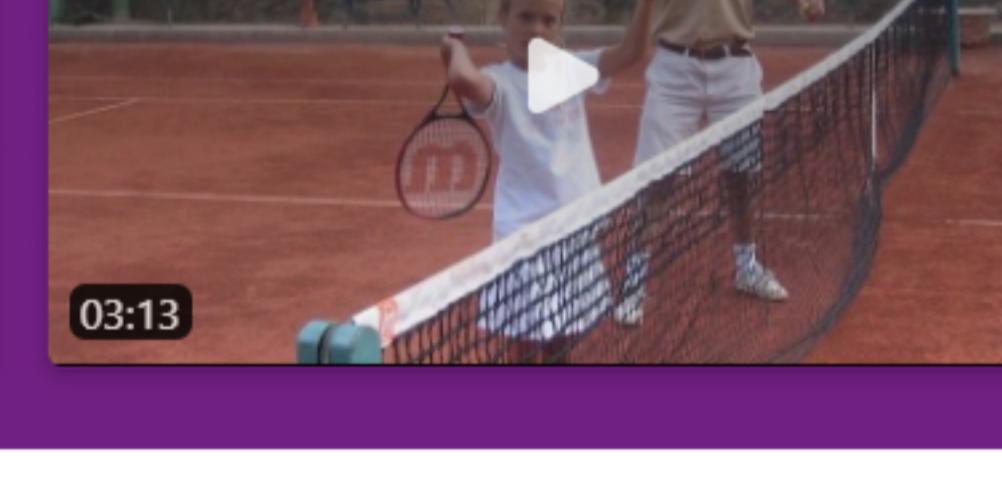

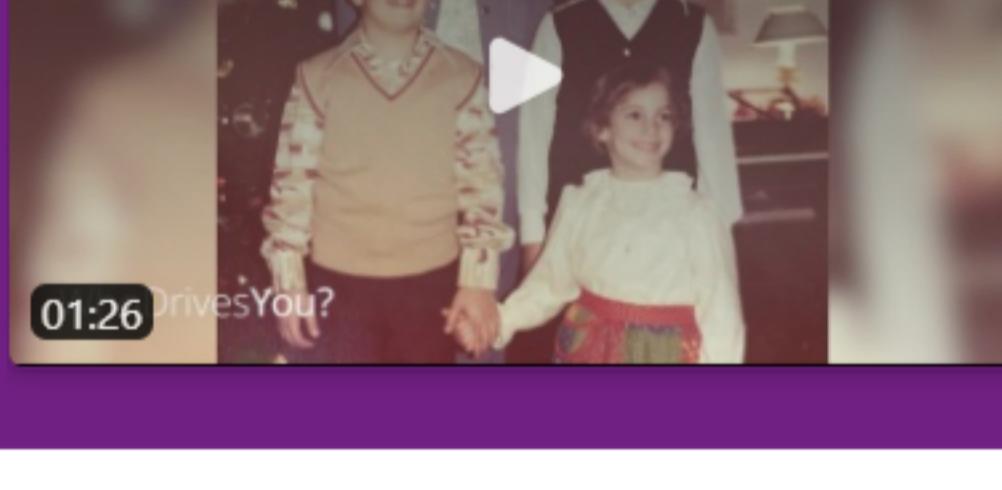

Meet Karla.

When I think about who drives me — both in my work at Viatris and in my personal life — it's my husband, Todd. In 2015, while vacationing in Aruba, our world was turned upside down. Todd, a retired Navy lieutenant commander, Ironman triathlete and marathoner, suffered a heart attack.

Meet Nishmita.

My father was a big man with a very strong personality — he was very strong physically, mentally. And he gave us this guidance in life: Always see the good in others. Even if they are bad to you, always see the good through your eyes. No matter how other people spoke to him, he always demonstrated that generosity.
